

I feel that New Jersey's Do Not Call rules should remain as is and not weakened. I can finally sit down to dinner without being interrupted by annoying telemarketers. I am entitled to that option.